

CME Programme for Family Doctors – Module Content: Hyperlipidaemia Management

Level	Part	Content	Duration
Basic	Part 1	Clinical Approach and Non-pharmacological Therapy for hyperlipidaemia - To learn the clinical approach for adult patients with hypercholesterolaemia - To learn the non-pharmacological management of hypercholesterolaemia in adults	45 minutes
	Part 2	Pharmacological Therapy for Hypercholesterolaemia To learn the common pharmacological treatment of hypercholesterolaemia (statins, ezetimibe) in adults	45 minutes
Advanced	Part 1	Familial Hypercholesterolaemia - To recognize the clinical manifestations and complications of adult Familial Hypercholesterolaemia (FH) - To learn the clinical assessment and diagnostic criteria for adult FH in primary care - To understand the management strategies for adult patients with heterozygous FH in primary care	45 minutes
	Part 2	Hypertriglyceridaemia - To recognize the clinical manifestations and complications of hypertriglyceridaemia in adults - To learn the clinical assessment for hypertriglyceridaemia in adults in primary care - To understand the management strategies for adult patients with hypertriglyceridemia	45 minutes