Exam Guideline & Preparation At-A-Glance

The screenshot displays the website of The Hong Kong College of Family Physicians (HKCFP). The header includes the college's logo and name in both Chinese and English, a search bar, and a 'Login' button. The main navigation menu on the left lists various sections, with 'Education & Examinations' selected. The breadcrumb trail indicates the current page is 'Education & Examinations > Exit Examination'. The page title is '2023 Supplementary Exit Examination'. A prominent green box with the text 'PREPARATION AT-A-GLANCE' and a hand cursor icon is overlaid on the page. To the right of this box is a red starburst graphic with the text '2023 SUPPLEMENTARY EXIT EXAMINATION'. The main content area is titled 'Introduction of Exit Examination of Vocational Training in Family Medicine' and includes an 'Overview' section. The overview text states that the Hong Kong Academy of Medicine (HKAM) requires all constituent specialty Colleges to hold six years of supervised specialist training, an intermediate examination, and a final examination for their trainees. It also mentions that the HKCFP conducts a six-year vocational training programme, including basic training, higher training, an intermediate examination (Conjoint HKCFP/RACGP Fellowship Examination), and a final examination (Exit Examination of Vocational Training). The Specialty Board of HKCFP is responsible for conducting the Exit Examination, and its aim is to test if candidates have achieved the objectives at the required standards at the end of their family medicine training. The page concludes by stating that this guideline serves as the main reference for candidates going to take the Exit Examination.

2023 SUPPLEMENTARY EXIT EXAMINATION

Introduction of Exit Examination of Vocational Training in Family Medicine

Overview

The Hong Kong Academy of Medicine (HKAM) requires all constituent specialty Colleges to hold six years of supervised specialist training, an intermediate examination, and a final examination for their trainees individually or jointly with an established Royal College. Passing the final examination is a prerequisite to Fellowship of HKAM.

With respect to these, the Hong Kong College of Family Physicians (HKCFP) conducts a six-year vocational training programme (including basic training and higher training); an intermediate examination (Conjoint HKCFP/RACGP Fellowship Examination); and a final examination (Exit Examination of Vocational Training).

The Specialty Board of HKCFP is responsible for conducting the Exit Examination of Vocational Training (Exit Examination). Aim of the Exit Examination is to test if candidates have achieved the objectives at the required standards at the end of their family medicine training.

This guideline serves as the main reference for candidates going to take the Exit Examination.
